The Referendum

Dear Friends

As I write this it is the eve of the referendum over whether we should leave the EU or remain a part of it. It's strange to think that by the time you read what I have written, the die will be cast and result will be known. Will we be in or out, I wonder.

For many weeks now a fairly random list of politicians, business leaders and celebrities have been lining up to give us their opinion on whether we should go or stay. The contradictory dire warnings about what will happen if we vote either way have been coming thick and fast. There seems to be a growing sense of unease amongst the electorate as many feel we just don't have sufficient proper information – as opposed to meaningless sound-bites – to make an informed decision. The polls tell us that the decision is too close to call, and on both sides there is a fear that people will be swayed by faulty arguments, prejudices or misinformation.

Only a few days ago many of us laughed as a bizarre confrontation between those for and against remaining in the EU took place on the River Thames. Nigel Farage led a flotilla of boats for the 'Brexit' line, and was opposed by Bob Geldof of all people in a counter-flotilla for the 'Remain' line. It seemed to be a typically eccentric British action, which raised affectionate smiles as well as eyebrows. The following day a young father who had taken part in the fun with his wife tweeted that his children were seriously disappointed that there was to be no flotilla today, so much had they enjoyed yesterday's.

Only a couple of hours later that young man and his children lost their wife and mother, Jo Cox MP, to an act of senseless violence by someone who it seems had been so stirred up by the hateful rhetoric of the pre-referendum campaigning that he had lost all sense of reason. This was a very dark day for Britain.

For the record, I am hoping we will vote to stay in the EU. But whichever way the vote goes I will personally work as hard as I can with everyone else in our dear country to make it work, and whatever happens to keep Britain properly British – in the sense of tolerant, welcoming, fair, compassionate, and yes, maybe a bit eccentric. Whatever we face, let's face it together and refuse to be drawn into hatefulness and prejudice. We are better than that.

Uplifting Swift News

There are now 42 swift boxes in the church tower – thanks to Action for Swifts. All four boxes that have CCTV cameras have birds in residence. On Sunday 19th June the situation was:

Box 1 – 3 chicks

Box 2 – at least 2 eggs

Box 3 – at least 2 eggs

Box 4 – one chick + at least one egg

If anyone would like to view the CCTV pictures please give me a call on 713710 or take a chance and knock on the door of All Saints Cottage next to the church.

If you happen to be in the church for any reason press the power button (last on the right) on the TV and the picture will come on.

Summer Teas

Despite the most unseasonal weather, we held one of our Summer Teas at All Saints Church last May Bank Holiday. It really was so good to see lots of people during the afternoon.

With it being cold, wet and very windy we did have our doubts but just before 2.30, the first of our visitors appeared and the rest of the afternoon was taken up with serving tea and cakes to a steady stream of people. It really was lovely to see everyone and a chance to catch up with you all.

Over £250. was raised in aid of All Saints and a very big thank you to everyone for your support and especially to the ladies who baked and served the teas

The Queen's Birthday

On Sunday 12th June, we held a lovely afternoon tea party in the Church followed by an evening Songs of Praise. Lots of people from Worlington came along to enjoy homemade cakes and a glass of Pimms to celebrate our Queen's birthday.

We joined in singing favourite hymns and listened to readings taken from the Queen's speeches. It was a really special evening and thank you all for coming.

What's on in Freckenham www.freckenham.onesuffolk.net

Films At Freckenham - Tickets £5 – no need to book.

Friday 1st July - 7:30pm, Brooklyn tells the profoundly moving story of Eilis Lacey (Saoirse Ronan), a young Irish immigrant navigating her way through 1950s Brooklyn. Lured by the promise of America, Eilis departs Ireland and the comfort of her mother's home for the shores of New York City. The initial shackles of homesickness quickly diminish as a fresh romance sweeps Eilis into the intoxicating charm of love. But soon, her new vivacity is disrupted by her past, and Eilis must choose between two countries and the lives that exist within. Bar, Pimms, popcorn & choc ices! Friday, August 5th is the award-winning, Room. And as top critic, Mark Kermode, says in his review that it is so much, much more than a woman and a child in a room and is one of the best films that he has seen in years. Running time: 1 hour 53 minutes.

Coming shortly matinee of the 2015 version of Jungle Book and an evening showing of the true story of Florence Foster Jennings.

Look out for a session of Cash Bingo over the summer!

The Farmers & Crafts Market is now on a summer break, by then the seasonal produce will be in abundance and we are hopeful of some extra different stalls at the market on Saturday 24th September.

We are looking at more new weekly activities and of course what we can book for the autumn season of entertainment especially as summer seems to be coming and going at the moment!

Check the website www.freckenham.onesuffolk.net for our weekly activities and do check if you have not attended recently. Includes, Freckenham, Fun Time for the under 5's, Karate, Zumba, Yoga (day and evening), Pilates & the newest activity FitSteps started by Ian, Natalie professional dancers from Strictly Come Dancing along with Mark Foster the swimmer to create dancing where you don't need a partner – our instructor is Julia! Plus very informal fun Table Tennis and Swing Jive Dance Clubs!

Village Hall Bingo Night - 24th June

A big thank you to those that turned out to support us. We gave away £80 in cash plus some great raffle prizes as well. A great time was had by all. Altogether we raised just over £150 for the village hall so thank you.
