Easter Flowers & Teas

All Saints Church looked absolutely gorgeous at Easter. We always wait to see it come to life after weeks of Lent and this year was no exception. The beautiful colours and choice of flowers used was perfect! Daffodils adorned the porch with a banner wishing us all a Happy Easter. On entering, the eye was drawn to masses of vibrant spring colours. Every area was decorated. Did everyone see Cassandra's chickens in the window?

The PCC would also like to thank the other talented ladies for their work; Audrey, Ann, Elizabeth, Ellen, Jane, Jo, Judith, Nicky and Teresa. Thanks to the ladies who baked delicious cakes and helped at Easter Teas; Ann, Ellen, Jacquie, Jo and Linda.

Despite the miserable weather, it didn't stop people coming along to enjoy a cup of tea and a good selection of homemade fayre. Thank you very much for your support, it was lovely to see you all.

Dear Friends

It's not every day that you have not one, but two Bishops to stay, but that was what happened in our house last month. It could seem quite daunting, and I have to admit that a fair bit of tidying up and dusting went on before we welcomed Bishop Martin and Bishop Mike into our home as they passed through on their Lent walking pilgrimage. However they turned out to be delightful house guests, with not a pointy hat or crozier in sight. During their stay they visited local businesses, held prayer services in Worlington Church and met local people from all four villages in our group for a social evening at Freckenham Village Hall.

For me as a parish priest the best bit was simply having time with two such experienced and wise people of God. In particular, after the social event we sat up late into the night just talking - something it's rare to have unrestricted time for with a couple of busy church leaders. I found it nourishing and enriching to be able to turn over all sorts of details of life and ministry with people who were genuinely interested in the life of our villages, and who I can only describe with the old-fashioned term 'godly'. It was as if they were soaked in God, and I felt as if I was soaking up a bit of God too as we talked.

It's sad that even in the church, where we are supposed to be able to find peace and tranquillity, we are so often burdened with a sense of 'so much to do' that we can't take time to sit and talk. It's probably one of the most nourishing and healing things there is.

I suspect that some of the things that keep us so busy are not really as important as we think they are, and it would be great if we could figure out what they are, ditch them and make more time for each other. Perhaps we need to rediscover the idea of a proper Sabbath day of rest. These are the things I am pondering as I realise that sitting down for a long talk with a couple of Bishops was probably the best use of my time in the whole of the past month.

Love, Sandie x

THE STORY In 2016, Alan Deakins retired from filmmaking, became a Samaritan, and bought a bike on eBay for £80. On his 70th birthday, he had a stroke. Fortunately, he fully recovered. Two years on he is still a Samaritan in Bury St Edmunds, and he is still riding his bike.

OLD MAN ON A BIKE

SHORT STORY - LONG JOURNEY - GOOD CAUSE

THE JOURNEY On 17 June, Alan will cycle from St Petersburg to Bury St Edmunds (a 80 day journey of 1700 miles, taking him through Russia, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Kaliningrad, Poland, Germany, and Holland.

THE CAUSE You probably know that Samaritans are there for anyone in emotional distress, struggling to cope or at risk of suicide 24/7/365. Last year Bury St Edmunds Samaritans, handled 30,000 calls and responded to thousands of emails and texts.

Did you know each Samaritans branch is self-funding? As well as doing our work, we're out there raising funds to continue.

That's why this old man is getting on his bike.
